WASHINGTON, Sept. 21 .-- The advices from Havana to-day only confirm the feeling which has been entertained here that the differences between the Government of Cuba and the insurgent forces are irreconcileble and that even if the President's Commissioners should succeed in accomplishing any arrangement for the settlement of the difficulties in Cuba, it could only be temporary, and that a crisis must necessarily Intervention, therefore, by the United States, is likely to occur at Annexation, it is argued, will follow in due course of time.

Officials of thte War, State and Navy Departments, when shown the Mayana bulletin telling of the impending crisis, would not admit the receipt of any confirmatory advices, but it is known definitely that Government officials here entertain the view as herein stated.

POLICY OF RECONCENTRATION.

It was said to-day that in case of intervention one of the first acts of the United States would be the adoption of a policy of reconcentration, but without the horrors attending the similar policy of Gen. Weyler. HAVANA, Sept. 21.-La Discusion publishes a despatch from Cienfuegos saying that bluejackets from the American gunboat Marietta, who were garrisoning the Soledad sugar estate, have been fired on by rebels. The Americans returned the fire and the rebels fled.
